As a Solar Salesmen, you'll probably make a lot of money.

TRENT tries moving his porsche forward, but bumps the back of the vette.. He sighs, gets out, looks at the damage, pulls out a different set of keys, and pulls the vette forward, giving him more space.

TRENT gets back into the porsche, pulls forward a bit more, but he still needs space, so he backs the porsche up. As he backs the porsche out, he bumps into the mercedes, it's alarm starts going off.

TRENT sighs again. He pulls out the mercedes fob, turns off the alarm, and backs the mercedes a bit.

Cut to a wide, there's an entire row of exotic cars. TRENT accidentally backs the mercedes into a challenger. He sighs, yet again, and opens the door to the challenger.
